I was born with a disability and use a wheelchair. Until I was 15, I couldn't leave home on my own. But over time, I learned to build my independence and create an active life despite the limitations.

In 2022, my hometown of Kharkiv became a front-line city and was hit by daily Russian shelling. Because of the war, I was forced to leave my home and start over in Poland. Today, I live in Wrocław, where I am building a new life.

I am raising funds for an electric wheelchair add-on that will make it easier for me to move around the city and stay independent. Every donation brings me one step closer to greater freedom.
