Thank you for your support!

Paweł faces numerous health challenges, including brain damage and spastic paralysis of the lower limbs. He requires constant care in all aspects of life.

To improve his quality of life, Paweł needs specialized rehabilitation equipment like exoskeleton, electric wheelchair, ongoing medical treatment, and regular, costly rehabilitation sessions. These essential needs come with significant expenses that are not covered by insurance.

Despite his hardships, Paweł remains a cheerful and resilient man. He endures a lot of pain but loves life and God. As a carpenter by trade, he has a passion for architecture. He enjoys helping others, even though he himself needs assistance.

Support Paweł in His Daily Struggles and Health Journey
